Faculty

The backbone of a school is the faculty. The laboratories, the machines, and books are lost to us without the guidance and motivation from the teacher.

The Lincoln High faculty is rich in preparation and experience and ranks high in our esteem.

Lincoln High Administration

Principal Melvin J. Bowen

There are many qualities that make a man a leader and a good administrator. Mr. Bowen has many of these qualities.

He possesses great enthusiasm, both in his work and outside in the field of sports. However, the one quality that stands out is his intense interest in Lincoln High School and south Des Moines. This is evident in the stature that Lincoln enjoys under his leadership.

Harry Dickson
Boys Advisor

Mr. Dickson, boys advisor, has gained the respect of all those who have dealings with him.

Probably no one has more to do than Mr. Dickson yet, he never is too busy to listen to the many problems brought to him.

Miss Anderson is usually busy helping many, many students. She has a fine understanding of young people and listens to and shares their problems.

Mrs. Shiffer has a very exacting job. She is responsible for all records and school monies. Even when she is swamped with work, she has time for a friendly "hello."

The class of June 1963 presents a brief history of the school year 1963.

It has been an eventful year, full of vivid pictorial incidents and activities. There have been many academic accomplishments; sports events have been exciting, and we have been in the "win" column many times.

All in all, it has been a gratifying year. We have had our problems, but we feel we have many happy, satisfying memories to store for the future.

Music

Of all the arts this is perhaps the most pleasing and universal. Rhythm and melodies will always be a part of our lives. You do not have to be a member of the band to respond to music.

We have many musical groups at Lincoln and they entertain at assemblies and various functions throughout the city. They perform with great skill and have brought many honors to the school.

Journalism

The process of making a semi-annual is a bit staggering to the staff at the beginning of the year. At first we have many ideas, plans, and suggestions combined with pep and enthusiasm. As the year wears on we find out there are hundreds of details to be worked out; pictures to be taken, books and ads to be sold, layouts to be considered, written material to be inserted, correct identification of pictures, to mention only a few.

The staff of the June 1963 semi-annual hope they have succeeded in giving you a brief picture of the year 1962-63 at Lincoln High.

Sports

A sportsman is one who is fair and generous, a good loser and a graceful winner. We have many sportsmen at Lincoln and it applies also to those who watch the teams in action.

This year has been a record breaker for Lincoln high sports. Not just one single sport, but all our teams have creditable records and deserve our praise and appreciation.

Homecoming

Homecoming is both a sad and happy time for many graduates. A reunion brings back memories, and that makes any changes wrought in intervening years seem monumental.

Even though a few years have gone by, there is still a tenuous tie that brings the graduate back to the scene.

Honoring Royalty: John Barakat, King; Dinny Barshell, Queen; Marsha Clark, Princess, Jim Ogden, Prince

Cheerleading Alternates: Glenda Ackelund and Kay Browning

Dennis Chadwick discusses the icon which he made as a project for Russian class.

Russian Class Highlights

MISS KIRKHOFF, Advisor

Lincoln is the only high school in the state of Iowa offering a class in Russian.

The popularity of the course has increased and the opportunities in this field are enormous.

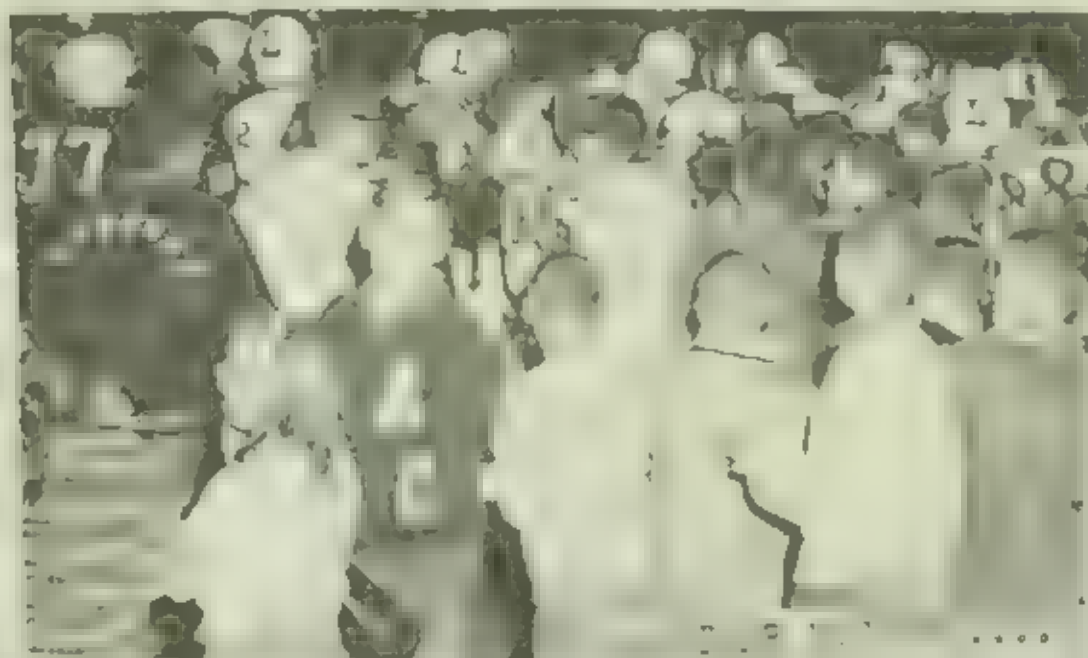

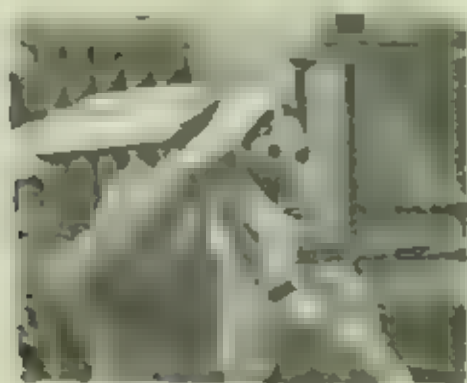

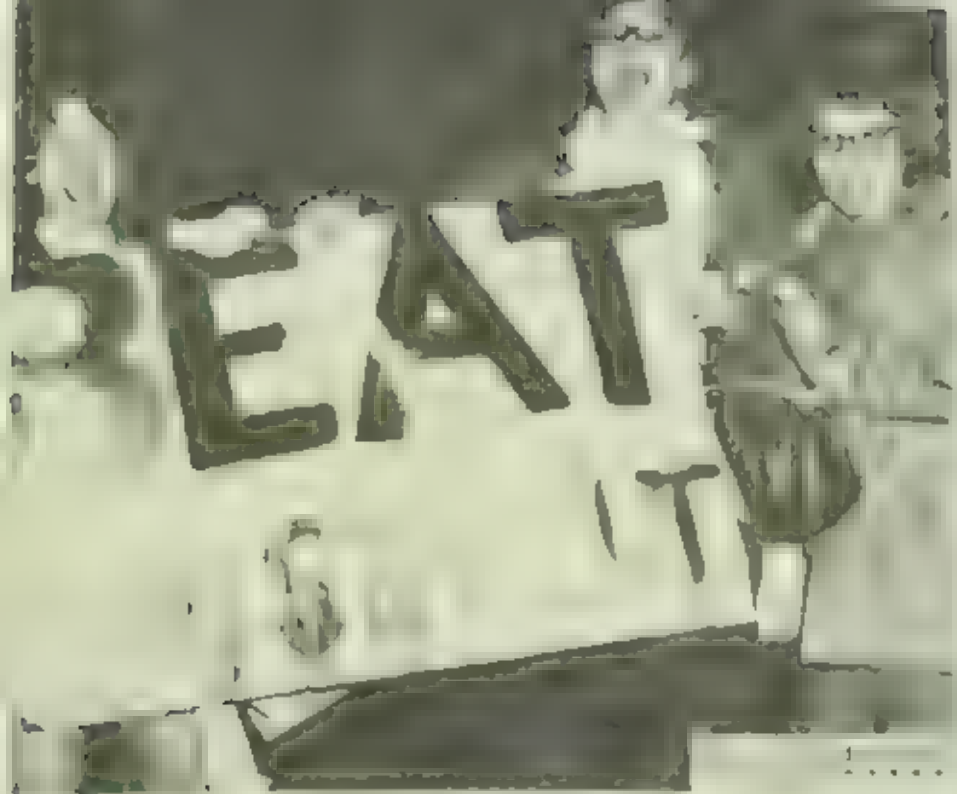

Russian club members were delighted with the Russian food served at their Christmas party.

CONSIDER...
A CAREER
...NOT A JOB

When looking ahead to your business life, you want to think beyond just a job. Consider the kind of business career you want and judge the qualities of the company which is a part of that business. Life Insurance is a good business and the Equitable Life of Iowa is a good company — offering so many opportunities for the career man or woman.

Look into the Equitable, and you'll find all of the so-called fringe benefits offered by business generally, plus some that only Equitable has for you. Most importantly, there are so many phases of life insurance work that your opportunities for advancement and permanency are limited only by your own ability. In the Personnel Office, 1105 Equitable Building, you'll find Miss Pat Bush — discuss with her all the opportunities that exist for you at the Equitable — you may choose your career right now.
